Commentary

Editorial method

Scanned file corrected from PMFC. Rhythmic durations augmented following our project's transcription conventions. Pitches, rhythms and mensural notation features checked and corrected against manuscript source. Text follows PMFC edition.

Notes on the readings

Bar numbers refer to the transcription. "4.2" is bar 4, second note. Tr = triplum, Mot = motetus, Ten/T = tenor.

- The copy text for this transcription is the version found in Iv. Variants in other sources not yet noted. Ten 1.1 ascending stem probably not a plica but drawn this way to avoid underlaid text

Texts

Triplum

Post missarum sollempnia, divina post eulogia, presul, gregem rege tuum speculo bonum actuum, rectos unice studeas, malos pie choercheas, Rex, apex fulgens apice habenas rei publice moderaris eximie canendus pater patrie; sana deus ut docmata precipis strategemata, historica revolvite, proceres stupis indite. Miles, predisnon inhya, percipis qui stipendia, nec fuge nec dedecore dedetas tecto corpore. Judex, equis jus laudibus utris partire partibus, ac inbecillibus fave, sed ab injuria cave. Quisquis es, recte sentias post datas Deo gracias.

Motetus

Post misse modulamina, post verbi dulcis semina, ciries gemes ploica ne belarchato garchia cedat, prodeste liberis et moribus et literis. Mercator emat utile neque fusta vendibile pondere metro precio, perjusta sit venditio. Architector, nec opifex esto fidelis artifex, ingenium per atrie manibus age strenue. Agricola, sulca sere, mete, puta lege terre, prout congruit tempori, nec parce duro corpori. Tu, qui vis bonum, facias post datas Deo gracias.
